How to Be Happy, Eleanor Davis. Fantagraphics. $24.99. 152 pages. BUY IT NOW. REVIEWED BY Sean T. Collins Jul 09, 2014. The first moment -- but certainly not the last -- that made me stop reading How to Be Happy, turn back the pages, and immediately re-read them came early. "In Our Eden", the lead-off piece in Eleanor Davis's masterful new collection of short stories, concerns a back-to-nature commune driven to dissent and dissolution by its founder's purity of vision.

Eleanor Davis' cartoon collection How to be Happy, reviewed.

Eleanor Davis is such an amazing storyteller. I first learned of her work at the Illustration Conference in 2016, where she spoke (taking us through one of her comics, panel-by-panel), which left the crowd in tears, giving her a standing ovation. Her ability to touch on existential truths and struggle in such a poignant way is bar none.
